

3 Reasons to let VERITA conduct your workplace investigation ...

1 Preserve the attorney-client privilege with your client/counsel and avoid an inevitable conflict of interest in a subsequent litigation

2 Have the fact finding done by attorneys who understand the substantive law and are skilled in interviewing techniques

3 Free up internal resources Investigations are time-sensitive and labor-intensive for HR professionals who are responsible for other critical tasks

VERITA provides independent and unbiased factual investigations of all types of workplace claims, including harassment, discrimination, whistle blower, theft, misuse of company property, compliance violations and other employee misconduct.

visit our website at www.verita.us or call 610.251.6869